

Camp Reminders: Top Ten List

1. Dress code is in effect! It is April not July – jeans, T-shirt, sweatshirt. Layer clothes. If the high is 68 that means it will be 40 all morning and 68 by 2 in the afternoon. You are out all day sitting in the grass, old logs, etc. Pack lite or we will re-pack you – follow the list in your booklet.
2. Bring a disposable sack lunch for Monday's lunch or you won't eat (make it yummy).
3. It will rain – bring a poncho or lg. trash bag – you will be out in it – it is fun!
4. Bring a water bottle and fill it constantly = no headaches/stomachaches.
5. High school counselors are in charge along with parents in the cabins. Respect their authority and the fact that they have sacrificed a great deal to be there with you.
6. No pictures in cabins or use of cell phones. We strongly suggest disposable cameras with your name on it in Sharpie.
7. Cell phones don't work at camp, we suggest you not bring your iPhone and have it ruined. If you must make a call see a teacher.
8. Put sleeping bag, towel, and pillow in a trash bag with your name on a piece of duct tape.
9. Bring a small backpack, knapsack, or string bag to use during the day at camp. When you leave your cabin in the am you will not be allowed back until bedtime. Put your water bottle, money, disposable camera, tissues, sunscreen, snack, gum, etc... in it to keep with you as you need items.
10. When you arrive at school put luggage and sleeping bag by your bus number. Keep with you your lunch and string bag and go sit in the cafeteria by bus number. We will take attendance and leave when the busses arrive and are packed by the high school counselors.

Camp Reminders: Top Ten List

1. Dress code is in effect! It is April not July – jeans, T-shirt, sweatshirt. Layer clothes. If the high is 68 that means it will be 40 all morning and 68 by 2 in the afternoon. You are out all day sitting in the grass, old logs, etc. Pack lite or we will re-pack you – follow the list in your booklet.
2. Bring a disposable sack lunch for Monday's lunch or you won't eat (make it yummy).
3. It will rain – bring a poncho or lg. trash bag – you will be out in it – it is fun!
4. Bring a water bottle and fill it constantly = no headaches/stomachaches.
5. High school counselors are in charge along with parents in the cabins. Respect their authority and the fact that they have sacrificed a great deal to be there with you.
6. No pictures in cabins or use of cell phones. We strongly suggest disposable cameras with your name on it in Sharpie.
7. Cell phones don't work at camp, we suggest you not bring your iPhone and have it ruined. If you must make a call see a teacher.
8. Put sleeping bag, towel, and pillow in a trash bag with your name on a piece of duct tape.
9. Bring a small backpack, knapsack, or string bag to use during the day at camp. When you leave your cabin in the am you will not be allowed back until bedtime. Put your water bottle, money, disposable camera, tissues, sunscreen, snack, gum, etc... in it to keep with you as you need items.
10. When you arrive at school put luggage and sleeping bag by your bus number. Keep with you your lunch and string bag and go sit in the cafeteria by bus number. We will take attendance and leave when the busses arrive and are packed by the high school counselors.