MR. BROVIAK'S ROOM MANAGEMENT PLAN ENGLISH 7TH GRADE

Academics:

A. Course Overview:

Short Stories	Poetry	Fables	Mythology
Grammar Review	Novels	Latin roots

B. Student Supplies:

Pencils, Pens, SPIRAL NOTEBOOK, ENGLISH FOLDER, Good attitude.
Textbooks must be covered at all times.

*Book Covers must have MR BROVIAK and ENGLISH written clearly on them.

Book covers may be purchased or created. All supplies may be purchased at bookstore.

C. Test & Quiz:

There will be a minimum of two days notice given before all FOUR major tests (one each nine weeks).
We will have WEEKLY quizzes that cover what we have learned in class. These quizzes will usually be 24 points.

D. Homework:

Late homework will be accepted for 20% off the "earned grade" unless unusual or extenuating circumstances are the cause (determined by teacher). Most homework will be kept in the English Notebook. If the notebook is lost, a new one must be purchased and the work replaced on the student's own time.

E. Extra help time:

I will be available before and after school on most days. I can also make special arrangements for other times as needed and I can be available during our weekly BEST class.

Attendance Procedures:

Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each period. Students must be in their seats when the bell rings, and they should be working on whatever problem, or question or writing prompt is prepared for them. Simply being in the room is NOT enough, you must be IN your seat BEFORE the bell sounds.

Behavior Points and Discipline:

I have created a form of "currency" that can be used in my class that I call Behavior Points, or just "B" points for short. Students earn points for doing positive actions and lose points for negative actions, or can choose to spend them on items they may need in the classroom.

Each student is given 15 new points at the start of each nine weeks. These will be added to any remaining points from the previous nine weeks.

Students lose B points for doing negative or "bad" things (not having class materials, talking, going to the restroom, not following directions in class, not doing homework, etc.)

B points can be earned for doing positive or "good" things (bringing in recycling or box tops, doing extra homework, earning student of the week, finding vocab word in a novel, etc.)

As positive points are earned, the student will earn privileges that can be used in class (move seats, bring in pillow, choose own seat in class, etc.)

If a student loses enough points to fall to FIVE points or below, then punishments will be implemented (last to enter room, can't "test out" of homework, new seat, stand during class, lunch detentions, etc.)

If a student reaches ZERO with their B points, then they will automatically serve a detention in order to regain positive points. The detention is a choice the student makes to try and earn positive points and get themselves back into good class standing. Detentions will be served during lunch (unless requested otherwise by a parent).
