

Mr. Broviak's English Assessment Assignment:

This assignment is due TOMORROW. It will check your past abilities and allow me to see what to expect from you this coming year. Do your best on this assignment. PLEASE wait to begin until you get home tonight as this can be complicated, and I do NOT want you to fail.

1. Please read ALL the directions carefully before beginning, you will need to plan out how to best complete this assignment.
2. Follow all directions word for word. The directions are specific and detailed.
3. All work must be done in pen. I don't like pencil.
4. Put ALL work on this hand out; nothing should be written on a separate sheet.
5. Write your first, middle and last name and birthday (month/day/year) on the other side of this paper where it says NAME
6. Make sure your class period is written after your name on the other side of this paper.
7. Put a 5-pointed star around your name on the other side if you had an A in English on any report card last year.
8. Find where it says #1 and write an EIGHT-word sentence there.
9. Make sure the sentence tells me about one of your pets (or another animal).
10. Make sure you use the pet's name in the sentence.
11. Have your pet doing something active in the sentence.
12. Make sure you wrote the date under your name, not next to it.
13. When you write the date under your name, make sure you wrote out the month (ex: August).
14. Underline the verbs in the sentence you wrote.
15. Circle all the nouns in your sentence.
16. Find where it says #2 and draw a small picture of the animal from sentence #1.
17. Make sure the picture is in color.
18. Draw a small picture of you standing next to your animal.
19. Draw a picture of your family standing next to you.
20. Make sure everyone has a face. ☺
21. Only use stick figures for the drawings.
22. Make sure you write each person's name so I know who your family members are.
23. Do not use markers or crayons to color your people or animal. Use colored pencils or pens.
24. Make sure you draw your family members in a row from oldest (left) to the youngest (right).
25. Find where it says #3 and list four characters from your favorite book (or any book).
26. Do not list more than 2 males or more than 2 females.
27. Do not list a person that is related to anybody else on your list.
28. Do not list more than one child (person under 18 years of age).
29. Please make a note of the fact that this assignment is due MONDAY.
30. The assignment will be worth between 5 and 20 points.
31. You won't know if it is worth blowing off and not doing until you turn it in.
32. Think about how it might be worth basically nothing or it might be worth more than any other assignment.
33. Don't forget the other homework you have to do.
34. Make sure you list both the first and last names of the characters from the book in part #3.
35. Do not list more than one person with a last name that begins with the same letter as someone else.
36. Draw a smiley ☺ face next to your favorite character in your list.
37. Draw a frowny ☹ face next to your least favorite character on your list.
38. Circle the character in your list that you think was the closest to being a Main Character.
39. Underline any characters you have not put a mark next to yet.
40. You may not use anyone named Tom or Bob as a choice on your list.
41. Find where it says #4 and list five different adjectives that you think describe Mr. Broviak.
42. None of your adjectives may be repeated; Each must be a different word meaning a different thing.
43. Put a smiley ☺ face next to each positive word.
44. Put a frowny ☹ face next to each negative word.
45. Losing this paper or not turning it in is the same grade as doing the whole thing wrong.
46. Only follow the directions on line five of this paper. Do not follow any other directions.
47. This assignment will allow me to figure out how well you follow directions.
48. The ONLY directions you have to follow are direction numbers three, five and this one. I hope you understand that.
49. Your 7-letter adjective may not have the letter A in it anywhere.
50. None of your adjectives may begin with a vowel.
51. Circle the adjective that you think represents me the most.
52. Underline the adjective that you think has the least to do with me.
53. You must have more positive adjectives listed than negative ones.
54. Find where it says #5 and write a four-line poem describing how you feel about this assignment.
55. Your poem may either be positive or negative.
56. You must have at least five adjectives and six nouns in your poem.
57. You should have exactly ten words in each line of your poem.
58. Draw a circle around all words in your poem that rhyme with the word "READ".
59. Reading the directions is very important to doing this assignment correctly.
60. Make sure your poem has at least four words that rhyme with each other in it.
61. You must use at least two different words that rhyme with the word "DIRECTIONS" in your poem.
62. Underline your four rhyming words.
63. Make sure the star around your name has at least two points going upwards and one going down.
64. The poem is the last thing you have to do for this assignment.
65. Don't use the word "the" anywhere in your poem.
66. Give your poem a title.
67. The title must have the name of an object in it somewhere.
